CENTRAL POPULIST CLUB

Of Collin County Shied Its Castor Into the Political Arena Under Auspicious Circumstances.

That the populists of Collin county are neither dead nor sleeping was clearly evident to the most stupid observer present at their meeting in McKinney last Saturday, which resulted in netting the various populist clubs into even closer relationship by the organization of a central club composed of representative delegates from the several school district clubs. Persuant to the published call by a proper committee, a goodly number of delegates from the clubs throughout our broad county, met, as above stated, at one o'clock on the above date and proceeded at once to business.

A. S. Graves called the meeting to order, which went into temporary organization by making Judge J W. Gray chairman and Kent K Kerr secretary. After passing upon the credentials it was moved and carried to go into permanent organization of the Central Populist club of Collin county.

E. C. Forbes, of Bethany, was elected president, W. H Huff, of White's Grove, vice president and Walter B. Wilson, of McKinney, secretary.

Moved and carried that a commitee be appointed to draft resolutions to present to the body. The chair appointed J. W. Gray, J. T. Branch, J. A. Spaugh, R. T. Quisenberry and Mr. Ingram.

While the committee retired to draft resolutions, the club was entertained by a ringing address from the old reform war horse Capt. Johnson.

The committee reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Be it resolved, 1. That the Central club of Collin county shall be composed of one delegate from each populist club in the county, and one additional delegate for every ten members.

2. That each club is requested to take up a monthly collection to be paid quarterly to the secretary of the Central club.

3. That a finance committee be elected by the Central club to make such disposition of all funds paid into said Central club as this committee shall deem fit and proper.

4. That the Central club shall meet at 10 a. m on each first Monday of the first month in each quarter, viz: First Mondays in January, April, July, and October; but may be called together in special session at any time by the president.

On motion the secretary was instructed to furnish each paper in the county a copy of the above resolutions with the request to publish same.

On motion the following persons were appointed to organize the several magisterial precincts and to appoint temporary chairmen in the several school district:

No. 1. E. F. England,
" 2. Joshua Gotcher,
" 3. J. F Cave,
" 4. A. D. Stelzer,
" 5. W. H. Hicks,
" 6. W. T. Hale,
" 7. J. W. Younger,
" 8. T. A. Pruett.

The secretary was then instructed to secure a room as a a place for future meetings of the club.

After telling addresses by Messrs. Huff, Ingram, Doyle and others the first meeting of the Collin county Central populist club was adjourned to meet on the first monday in April unless called together prior to that time by the president.

Eugene V. Debs in Jail.

On Jan. 8, "St. Jackson's day," Eugene V. Debs and his associates in the American Railway Union, were placed in jail at Woodstock, Ill. Mr. Debs is sentenced for one year. Before entering the jail Mr. Debs wrote the following address to the people in his note book:

"To the American people—In going to jail for our participation in the late strike we have no apologies to make, nor regrets to express. We go to jail not like quarry slaves, but sustained by the consciousness that we have done our duty. No ignominy attaches to us on account of this sentence. I would not change places with Judge Woods, and if it is expected that six months or even six years in jail will purge me of contempt, the punishment will fail of its purpose. Candor compels me to characterize the whole proceeding as infamous. It is not calculated to revive the rapidly falling confidence of the American people in the federal judiciary. There is not a scrap of testimony to show that any one of us violated any law whatsoever. And if we are guilty of conspiracy why are we punished for contempt? This question will continue to be asked with ever increasing emphasis. I would a thousand times rather be held accountable for the strike than for the decision. The ridicule of the press that we are 'posing as martyrs' will not deceive the people. We all have homes and loved ones, and none of us are here by choice. We simply abide by the arbitrary order of the court. There is a higher power yet to be heard from. No corporation will influence its decision. Our cause is that of conscientious liberty, and we have an abiding faith in the American people. We accept our lot with becoming patience and composure.

"We can afford to wait. So far as I am concerned I feel that with all the circumstances considered, it would only have been disgraceful, if we had so acquitted ourselves as to have kept out of jail. Our enemies are entitled to all the comfort they can extract from our imprisonment, and our friends need have no concern Questions of great and grave import are up for decision. Great principles, involving the liberty of the citizen, are at stake Out of all this, good will come. There is one fundamental, bedrock principle that true Americans will never suffer to be sacrificed. It may be menaced, as it now is, but when the high court—'we, the people'—have passed final judgment, its enthronement will be fixed and secure for all time. We are by chance the mere instruments in the evolutionary processes in operation through which industrial slavery is to be abolished and economic freedom established. Then the starry banner will symbolize, as it was designed to symbolize, social, political, religious and economic emancipation from the thralldom of tyranny, oppression and degradation."—Southern Mercury.

The Governor of Alaska.

The governor of Alaska, Hon. James Sheakley, who is stopping at the Metropolitan, is an elderly gentleman of pleasant manners, who represented a Pennsylvania district in the forty-fourth congress, but who was appointed as an Alaskan commissioner by President Cleveland in 1887, and two years ago governor of the territory.

"Although Sitka is in rather a remote corner of the world," he said, "it is quite a pleasant place to live in and has a much better climate than people imagine. The town has a population of 400 whites and about 1200 Indians. The latter are well behaved, industrious, and about the shrewdest traders I ever saw. No yankee that ever came out of New England can get the best of them at any sort of bargaining. The mission school has done wonders in training the young Indians, who are growing up with as good a knowledge of the useful arts and trades as any white children in the United States. The pair of shoes I am wearing was made by an Alaskan boy, and a neater fit or better workmanship could not be desired. The social conditions of the country are not perfect, but the defects have been greatly exaggerated in the newspapers.

"I consider Alaska a fine example of the old saying that the country is best governed which is least governed. We are getting on splendidly under the present system and do not need a territorial form of government. There has been no touch of the hard times with us that we read so much about in the states. The outlook for future prosperity is brighter now than it has ever been, chiefly on account of the increasing output of the gold fields. Though placer mining in the far exterior along the basin of the Yukon is attended with great privations and the field is hard to reach, those hardy fellows who have braved the snows of the mountains and the long trip by water have been well repaid for their toil. I know of two men who divided $40,000 between them as a result of last season's digging. The trend of the future of the country is all toward the development of the gold fields. It can never amount to anything in an agricultural way, a few cabbages and potatoes being all the soil will bring."

THE COMING MAN.

A pair of very chubby legs,
Encased in scarlet hose;
A pair of little chubby boots.
With rather doubtful toes;
A little kilt, a little coat.
Cut as a mother can—
And lo! before us stands in state
The future's "coming man."

His eyes, perchance, will read the stars
And search their unknown ways;
Perchance the human heart and soul
Will open to their gaze;
Perchance their keen and flashing glance
Will be a nation's light—
Those eyes that now are wistful bent
On Some "big fellow's" kite,

Those hands—those little busy hands—
So sticky, small and brown;
Those hands whose only mission seems
To pull all order down—
Who knows what hidden strength may be
Hidden within their clasp,
Though now 'tis but a taffy stick
In sturdy hold the grasp.

Ah, blessings on those little hands,
Whose work is yet undone!
And blessings on those little feet,
Whose pace is yet unrun!
And blessing on the little brain
That has not learned to plan!
Whate'er the future holds in store,
God bless the "coming man!"

A Chance to Make Money.

I have had my first streak of luck and I want to tell you about it. A little over four weeks ago I began selling Dish Washers and have cleared in that time $400 Isn't that pretty good for the first month? I am sure I can do better every month right along as every Washer I sell helps to sell others. I can wash and dry the dishes for an ordinary family in two minutes, and as soon as people see such a machine they will buy it quick. This is a business anyone can do well at, in any locality. You can get full particulars by addressing the Iron City Dish Washer Co., E. E. Pittsburg, Pa. Don't wait till some one else gets your home territory, but start to work at once.

MRS. W. HENRY B.

Should Cleveland Be Cursed or Thanked A Question.

Editor Missouri World:

We are denouncing and cursing Cleveland. These execrations come from the depths of the hearts of a suff-ring and outraged people. Are we right? Would we not better bless the day of his coming, and say Amen to his course? He is forcing the great issue of the times that might be delayed. Since the financial octopus was planted in our midst, other presidents with their party leaders, have used diplomacy; have been more discreet, and if the same course had still been pursued the final contest would have been delayed. But not so now. Cleveland and his partners in crime and treason, have thrown off the disguise so long and successfully worn. The hideous god of Mammon now stands forth in broad light holding forth as his trophy the people enslaved and God's will defied. The demon—devil incarnate—money power, giddy and drunken on the slaughter of the land, in bold and cruel derision, tries to laugh the people to submission; and with its song of honest money and gold standard attuned to the strains of hell's deepest gloom, attempts to drown the weeping and wailing of its millions of starving and dying victims. Cleveland, indiscreet and unwilling to temporize, has torn the mask from his own party, and will after the 4th of March perform the like service for the republican party. This party now stands in awe and dread. When called upon to face the issue, the only issue—that of money, the republican party will also be unmasked. The issue that could have been delayed perhaps for another generation is now forced. We can't delay it if we would and would not if we could. Millions say, "I see now but could not before." The bans of party hate and passion are broken and a light, heaven born, is entering the souls of men.

All that is holy and cherished of men and beloved of God is at stake. Our country must be disenthralled. Let us face the ordeal bravely. The Father of men means that we should Cleveland and his brigands are playing the part that God has assigned them. Through scourges and great tribulations come His most bounteous blessings.

Charles I and Louis XVI unconsciously played their part in the world's great drama. Cleveland and his sycophan are unconsciously playing theirs. They are asleep to the mutterings and thunderings of the mighty volcano beneath them. Man's greatest contest for man's God given and inalienable rights is at hand I will no longer be delayed. Let it be determined as it may, the victory will be complete. If the people go down, the world will revert to the ages of darkness and barbarism. Civilization cannot bear up under the burdens of the few and the Shylock slavery. Serfdom and barbarism are their legitimate and only heirs. If the people win, the victory will certainly be complete. The money-god with all his train and brood, will be driven and banished from the face of the earth. A new era will dawn. Ours is not the only nation interested in the coming conflict. It is the conflict of civilization against darkness. The chains of plutocracy will be shattered and the bondage of nations thrown off, Man's freedom and brotherhood will be established throughout the earth. The debt that enslaves and murders its myriads will be cast off and its possessors left to sweat, toil and labor as God in the beginning decreed. The bright day is dawning. Let all men pray to hasten its coming.

A. H. LIVINGSTON.

Mrs. Grant, the widow of Gen. Grant is now living in Washington at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Grant-Sartoris. In speaking of her husband recently she said, among other things: "I was with the general through nearly the whole of the war, and I must confess I am fond of the army. I was glad to be with him, and he always arranged his headquarters, if possible to do so, in order that I might share his lot. I remember when he was stationed in Nashville he sent for me to come, and a few days after my arrival he was ordered away to another port. He came into the headquarters looking very much depressed, and when I told him that some of the ladies had remarked that he always ran away when I came he said he had been planning all in his power to remain where he was, but that Longstreet's movements forced him to the front. In his last campaign in Virginia I was with him and lived for several months in a log cabin on the banks of the James river. We had waited long and anxiously for the surrender of the south, and I remember how gladly he hailed the news that Lee was ready to lay down his sword. The general had a severe headache when the tidings came, but he said it vanished instantly. He was glad the war was over for the sake of the southern people. He bore no feeling of animosity toward his opponents, and often he has told me that for the good of the south he wanted to end the struggle 'They are people,' he sometimes remarked, 'like ourselves. They have struck out wildly, and for their own sakes I wish to bring this war to an end—the sooner the better for both sides, for a divided nation could never live. We must be a union.' And always his expressions were full of a feeling that longed to bring the whole nation back into harmony. Few, perhaps, know that General Grant was a slaveholder, but the fact is he had several in the state of Missouri, and these were freed, like those in the south, by the emancipation proclamation. These slaves," said Mrs. Grant, "came to him from my father's family, for I lived in the west when I married the general, who was then a lieutenant in the army. I lived in the army then for awhile, and afterwards we farmed in Illinois When the war broke out I followed him to the field"—Atlanta Constitution.

DON'T BE DECEIVED by any druggist who may say he has just as good a medicine as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, when you ask for it, because he can make more profit on the inferior medicine which is urged upon you. It is possible that it does not benefit the dealer who tells you so, but it is certain that it does not benefit you who are sick. Nothing is "just as good" as the "Discovery" for curing diseases of the blood, liver and lungs, no matter what the dealer may say. It is guaranteed to cure, in every case, they'll return the money. It's a special medicine for young girls just entering womanhood; for women at the critical "change of life;" for the pre-maternal and maternal conditions; and for every woman who is run-down.

Advised to Take Hood's Sarsaparilla and is Cured.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"I am glad to say that I am in better health now than I have been for a long time. Myself and wife have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for the past four months, and I can truly say that it has done us more good than any other medicine we have ever taken. I was troubled with dyspepsia for over two years. I also had a slight touch of consumption and was frequently off duty.

Unable to Work.

I spent a good portion of my earnings for doctors' bills and other medicine which did me good only for a little time. My employers urged me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla so I bought one bottle and began its use about the first of April, at that time weighing only 130 pounds although my usual weight is 160 pounds. After using the first bottle I felt that I was better, so I purchased a second bottle. I am taking the fifth bottle now and since commencing to take Hood's Sarsaparilla have had only one slight attack of illness.

MR. CLEVELAND on yesterday sent a message to congress instead of writing a letter to some cuckoo, in which he recommends an issue of bonds to meet the exigencies. DURING last week $13,155,000 in gold were withdrawn from the national treasury vaults. Of this $7,200,000 were exported to England. For the present month the gold shipments from the United States have already footed up more than $20,000,000, which is greater than any month's exports since last June, and not since the United States treasury established a gold reserve has there been withdrawn for export, in any one week, a sum equal to last week's withdrawals.

The plan of campaign in Collin county is now marked out. The leaders have been appointed. The voters are ripe for information. So go to work, magisterial chairmen and organize a populist club in every school district of your precinct. Proceed in a manner too, that will convince people it is not lust for office that actuates your party in its aggressiveness; but prove to them that higher motives, truth, justice and calm deliberate reason is the power behind the throne.

A NEWSPAPER man is blamed with a lot of things he can't help, such as using partiality in mentioning visitors, giving news about some folks and leaving out others, etc. He simply prints the news he can find. Some people inform him about such things, others do not. An editor should not be expected to know the names and residence of your uncles, aunts and cousins, even if he should see them get off the train. Tell him about it. It's news that makes the newspaper, and every woman and child can be an associate editor.—Nocona Leader.

SENATOR PFEFFER has introduced a bill cuting down the funeral expenses of dead senators In this he is being roundly endorsed by a great many democrats. Poor, old whiskers! It is lamentable, indeed, to know that after geting thus far along down the western slope of life with many laurels all tangled up in your flowing beard that now, when your triumph is almost complete, you are forcibly compelled to submit to democratic endorsement. O, deplorable, cruel fate! But directions say take it.

THERE isn't a man in Texas who can give a sensible reason why a legislator should receive 20 cents a mile for traveling expenses to and from the state capital. It is a pick-up how ever, which our law makers don't propose to lose. They favor economy, so long as it is some one else who economises —McKinney Enquire;

PETER TURNEY the grand (?) old democratic governor of Tennessee refuses to vacate his office to his successful opponent whom he does not deny was elected according to the face of the returns. He charges fraud and is backed in his usurpation by a democratic legislature. Reuben F. Kolb claimed to be the legally elected governor of Alabama and sustained his claim by showing to the world self-evident frauds of the most glaring and blackened nature that ever disgraced the south. But a democratic state administration refused to even entertain these charges, much less investigate them and in the absence of a contest law the real victors had to submit to this stupendous corruption and supremacy of insulting usurpers. And yet these leaders claim(?) to be the diciples of Jefferson and followers of Jackson.

NOTWITHSTANDING the depleted, collapsed condition of the United States treasury and chaotic aspect of the nation's finances, the U. S. senate, by a vote of 31 to 21, on last Friday, passed the Nicaragua canal bill authorizing the issuance of $100,000,000 interest bearing bonds. If prosperity was abroad in our land this high-handed act of the bloated, gouty, aristocratic grannies in this so called dignified body might find some degree of palliation or remote apology. But saddling as it does additional burdens upon an already prostrated people, it should receive the immediate condemnation of all patriotic citizens—the already outraged victims of such obnoxious legislation.

IN these days of four cent cotton and forty cent wheat, of enforced idleness and universal distress, when our country's prosperity has been boldly stolen by the treacherous party in power and completely smothered under the green filmn of business stagnation and financial chaos, it is the height of the ludicrous to see some democrats, who would spurn the ide of opening the lids of a volume or unfolding the pages of a journal not in accord with their political prejudices, throw up their hands in mortal horor and bray "Our country will be ruined if ever the populists come into power." If our country can exist now with such despicable narrow contracted blots as such fellows as these are among its citizenship, nobody need have any fear of its early demise, let whoever may come into power.

THE retrenchment breeze, whose gentle zephyrs had their origin in the "calamity howling" populistic camp, is begining to fairly whiz across the country. It's true the democrats are in power and will claim all the glory of whetever is accomplished in this line, but nothing save their unmitigated gall will attract attention in these bogus pretentions. They scoffed and scorned the reforms until they got an unmistakable whiff of the coming tornado of popular approval of these objects of democratic hatred, and then, cowardly like, forsook their time honored tenets and threw themselves into the wake of the accelerating popular upheaval. In the fullness of time, which is near at hand, when other advanced reforms, advocated by the populists in the interests of the people, are about to be fully installed in public favor, democracy will change fronts and wallop over again. As, for instance, advocacy of governmental ownership of railroads by democratic leaders and a portion of the democracic press already noticeable.

SOME reasons of our present state deficit are given out by Bill Shaw, the unterrified Hogg supporter, in the following:

"The amount paid out for paper increased from $458 69 for the 21st legislature to $1,486 89 expended for the same item in the 23d legislature; for lead pencils $78 49 for the 21st. to $341 50 for the 23d; for ink $28 76 for the 21st to $103.87 for the 23d; for erasers $27.38 for the 21st to $386 for the 23d; for newspapers none for the 21st to $17,131.82 for the 23d; for miscellaneous items $1,643.23 for the 21st to $5,816.49 for the 23d."

What is true of the increase in expenditures on the above named items, is true of every other item of expense connected with our state government during that short period. These few little increases don't amount to much, its true, but all of them taken together have bankrupted the state treasury. Another queer fact noticeable just here is during this short time that the state expenses have been so rapidly increasing, prices of all the state's products and the value of all the state's property, real and personal, have been as rapidly declining. Yet in the face of these astounding facts Hogg's administration was unqualifiedly endorsed by the democratic state convention and this endorsement was sustained by nearly one half of the voters in the state—a most severe reflection on the business ability of the sovereigns of our grand state.

DEMOCRAT TARIFF REFORM.

CLEVELAND TO WILSON.

We have in our platforms and in every way possible declared in favor of free importation of raw materials. We have again and again promised that this should be accorded to our people and our manufacturers as soon as the democratic party was invested with the power to alter the tariff policy of the country. The party has now that power. We are as certain to day as we have ever been of the great benefit that would accrue to the country from the inauguration of this policy, and nothing has occurred to release us from our obligation to secure this advantage to our people. It must be admitted that no tariff measure can accord with democratic principles and promises or bear a genuine democratic badge that does not provide for free raw materials."

What does this mean?

It means that the president does not propose to let his party forget that it has declared definitely that raw materials of every character shall be put on the free list.

It means the wool from the sheep's back, cotton from the field, hides from the animal's back, ore from the mines and wood from the forests, in fact it means every thing that the producer has for sale.

What is the purpose for putting raw materials on the free list? The argument of the democrats is, to cheapen the article to the purchaser. Who is the purchaser of raw materials? The manufacturers, of course. No one else has any use for it until it is prepared for consumption. If the finished article also was put on the free list the producer could afford to stand it, but that is not the idea with them. Here is the programme in a nut shell

The cheapening of goods must be brought about at the expense of the producer, and the farmer, mine and stockman are to be sacrificed in the interest of annuitants and manufacturers. The south and west are to be butchered in the interest of New England states.

I shall watch the approach of 1896 with great concern to see if the people will still support a party to their own destruction. BUCK CORN BILL.

The Farmers Alliance.

Altoga, Jan. 26th 1895

Sixteen years ago next July; a bright constellation in the domain of self protecting organizations was discerned in the far west, shedding its soft rays of love, charity and equity over an oppressed but patriotic people. That bright little star was but the nucles of what was destined to become one of the most potent factors within the social and political arena. By its honesty of purpose, steadfastness in principles, and its educational facilities, it has commanded the homage of the powerful organizations of the country. In it, was reognized at once, a momentous factor for reflecting the evils that were being perpetrated upon a defenseless and unsuspecting people. It has, in a degree, accomplished its purpose as results testify. But there is yet a great field before it in which it can prove its efficiency. By proper management it can be one of the nonpartisan, political, controlling forces, in the not distant future. Political ambition and self-aggrandizement must not be tolerated for a moment. To the promotion and perpetuation of this bright star, which is the Farmers Alliance, each member must expect to make sacrifices at the present time in order to gloriously succeed in the future. Wrangling, bickering and back-biting must be guarded ogainst. Without harmony and system there can be no success Each member must organize himself into an organizer, and assume the resposibilities that may rest upon him

If each member would convert one to the cause this year what a grand army we would represent in 1896. And you can do it. Brethren, you can not expect to live on "flowery beds of ease," and make a success at anything You must work and with an energy that knowe no tiring. Our independence from British tyranny

Thousands of both men and women whose daily life is making severe drafts on their vitality, require something that will bring new material to the worn out nerve centers. This is just what Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine does.

"I had been suffering for years from headaches, neuralgia, sleeplessness, and general nervous prostration, unfitting me for social, household and business duties, and periodically, was Completely prostrated with pain. I tried several physicians and a great many remedies, but received no benefits until I Used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, when I found almost immediate relief, and have become quite my former self and am Again able to attend to my business, which is that of a brush manufacturer. I have recommended the Nervine to others who have used it with the same good results" Milwaukee, Wis. MRS. ANNA PEUSER.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1, 6 bottles for $5, or it will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Nervine
Restores Health

Pain has no show with Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

was the result of uniting energy, unsurpassed courage and inflexible will power, of our self-sacrificing fore-fathers. Without prolonged and patient effort there can be no good results.

And let us not depend wholly upon politic's to rectify all our evils. Begin at home. Make your sub-alliance effective in many ways. Unite. Go in a body to make your most important purchases. Go in a unit to effect your sales. Here is a place you may profit by being an alliance man. Don't be envious of each other pull together. Don't rely altogether on political power that is uncertain and self-destroying. Speak, talk and agitate alliance principles, but act in accordance and keep a steady nerve and a level head.

We don't regard it as being partisan when the alliance demands a certain condition of affairs, which it does to promote the welfare of its people.

It organized "to develop better state, mentally, morally, socially and financially." It is all right so long as it concentrates its batteries on the first three items of clause 3rd in its declaration of principles. But when it attacks the fourth it is "partisan, centralizing, rumorous," so says the plutocratic press. We are not accorded the privilege of protecting our financial interests. But by the aid of that omnipotent, and divine ruler, upon whose word we are organized, we purpose accepting those privileges guaranteed us by that priceless jewel, the constitution.

It must be done to maintain the manhood and womanhood of our posterity. Every farmer regardless of political affiliation must join this noble band if he would perpetuate a free race, and forbid the manacles of servitud from encircling the hands of his progeny. Partisan political parties must sink beneath oblivions waves and man principle be sustained above the wreck of partisan annihilation such is the decree of the great American people in tones that are yet reverberating all over the arches of the heavens and all through the expanse of the universe.

Now let us go to work to make the alliance grander than ever before. The noble work which the alliance has accomplished is only an index to what may yet be done in the way of organized co operation. The success will be commensurate with the earnestness and vigor with which the members push the work. The alliance has entered the field against monopoly. It cannot afford to turn back. Nothing but an aggressive warfare will win. Monopoly and privileged classes are intrenched behind fortifications which the farmers have builded for them. The fight on the farmer is being made, not only for himself but for generations unborn It is a fight for liberty, equality and a just reward for his labor. To lose is to be dependent, poor and miserable. To win is to be free comfortable and happy. To fail is to drift into contraligation, where money and aristocracy will rule.

No, Brethren we cannot afford to turn back To do so is death, darkness and despair Revolution would follow and the land be bathed in blood We must press forward. Shall we falter? Shall we heed the jeers of our enemies, the minions of mammon, Shylock and the devil? Or shall we press forward to victory? Let the latter be the watchword of every allianceman. And that victory may crown our efforts is the prayer of millions who are watching the contest with a degree of anxiety that indicates the danger of the situation and the depressed condition of the people.

Cross Roads Gleanings.

Cross Roads, Jan. 26, 1895.

Editor Democrat:

Plowing and general cleaning up of farms is the order of the day. The thrifty cotton stalk that bore no fruit has been cut down and cast into the fire.

A. D. Selzer took a flying trip to the I. T. to look out a location for settlement but returned last Friday with the report that the settlements were already there--too many of them.

Charley Miller now has the contract for carrying the mail from Roseland to Celina. It goes every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Roseland has some new merchants. Sid Finley and Tom Scags have bought out the firm of Stephens & Co, and are doing business at the old stand.

Dr. Rutherford, veterinary surgeon and doctor has been lecturing at this place the past week.

Supt. Shepherd was making his rounds among our schools the past week.

Miss Delia Finley has been elected to fill the vacancy caused by Mrs. Kemper's resignation, and she is proving herself worthy of the trust imposed in her.

Our literary society meets next Friday night.

Abe has to plow these days so excuse all shortcomings.

Mr. Jim Gladden left for Arkansas last week.

Master Tom Morrow is sick with fever.

We thank Mr Tucker and Mr Hence Wright very much for their kindness toward the school in making ready for the heater a nice lot of wood.

Mr. Roe Haven and brother, Bud, gave Farmersville a business call Saturday.

Our school is still moving on with renewed success.

A nice time for snom balling now and a sport enjoyed by most of us, especially the young people.

Rabbit hunting is now the order to a great extent by a number of our young people and old ones as well.

Farmers are very much pleased with the recent rain and snow fall, as it will be a great benefit in preparing land for the coming crop and of invaluable use to cereals already sown. EUGENE.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Usually sunny Texas has presented a very unusual appearance this week. Snow from two to four inches deep has covered the ground most of that time. The fleecy flakes began to fall about nine oclock Sunday morning continuing all day and increasing to quite a blizzard in the fore part of the night. The earth being moist, fully half the precipitation melted as it fell. But Monday morning, still abundance remained to supply all the purposes of the snow ballers who indulged to their hearts content in the sport. The rare luxury of sleighing in Texas was also enjoyed by a number of our young people.

A large number of Collin county teachers met in McKinney Friday and Saturday to hold their first Institute of the year. The published programme was fully carried out with one or two exceptions. One of the most interesting as well as most instructive features of the institute was an address by Dr. A. D Moseley Saturday, on the "Importance of coordinate mental and physical developement in the school-room.

The monetary of securing dry goods bargains usually effected in B. W. Rhine's well known establishment, was considerably variated right recently by the consummation of another kind of bargain, quite unusual bargain. The happy parties were Mr. H. H. Richardson and Miss Ida Usry officially assisted by Rev. Sallevas of this city.

Specialist Promotion.

Dr. A. D. Moseley has been promoted to the United States Medical Association of Section D.—which means Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat and Chest. This is the highest honor that can be conferred on a member. The Doctor's skill as a specialist is of national reputation, and the last promotion is an example of the truth of this statement.

We have sympathy for a man who has innocently involved himself and is unable to pay his obligations, but we know of certain wage earners and professional citizens of McKinney who seem to be proud of getting into every body's debt and making no pretension of paying. A clerk who gets fair wages and professional men who succeed in obtaining enormous fees should at least pay their living expenses. Certain "gentlemen" recently have succeeded in swindling nearly every business man in McKinney after having played the dude for months and even years. It is about time that our business men were closing down upon such commercial and social parasites.

"A. D. Moseley, M. D., performed a very delicate operation on a young man by the name of Royal, Wednesday evening. The young man's eye lashes had grown under and were pressing on the eye ball, causing considerable pain and probable destruction to the eye. Dr. Mosley, by this operation, placed the lashes in their natural position without pain."

The writer witnessed the doctor perform a similar operation Saturday on Mr. Crockett, of McKinney, whose eyes were similarly affected. The patient lay quietly on his back apparently without pain during the whole time of the delicate operation, conversing with those who had an opportunity and were not too "chicken hearted" to be present.

There is a good reason for the popularity of Chamberlains Cough Remedy, Davis & Buzard, of West Monterey, Clarion Co., Pa., says: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by H. C. Herndon

Winter has come with its snow, sleet and rain. It makes us shiver to hear the sleet dashing against the window pane. We can but think of the poor, destitute people up north; thousands of poor unfortunates have no homes and are obliged to tramp from place to place and beg for something to eat and the privilege of sleeping in some barn, starving, freezing and dying by degrees. What is the cause of all this want and misery? Is it because they won't work? No; haven't we heard them with our own ears begging for work? Why do they have to beg for work, as much work as there is to do? Simply because nobody has any money to hire this work done, so it goes undone. Why have't they got money? Because there is no money in the country to get. Why? Simply because Cleveland and the democratic party says we shall not have any money as long as they can keep us from it. What are we going to do? What are you going to do? Just sit still and not try to better the condition of these poor sufferers? If you are a christian and ever expect to get to heaven you will have to go to work for your country. God never intended for some of his children to beg or starve while others live in palaces. We are born into this world on an equal when we leave it we will leave on an equal We believe you will agree with us, and we firmly believe that God intended that we should live on an equal here. And we believe that every christian man will be held responsible. So don't you think you had better go to work, lay aside your prejudice and leave the old democratic party, a party that you have tried for so long and has never done any thing for you, but make promises and break them. Come to the populist party, a party that has never broken a promise, a party for the people and of the people. Every christian and every one that has to earn their living by the sweat of their brow should come and help us. Do what you can, if you are not able to do any thing but vote, be sure and give us your vote in '96 Just try us once and see if you will have to sell your cotton for 3 and 4 cents.

A Cure For Rheumatism.

Benten, Ark.

Messrs Lipman Bros., Savannah, Ga.

Gentlemen:—I had rheumatism about two months during last winter, was confined to my room most of the time. I saw an advertisement in the Saline Courier recommending P. P. P. as a cure for rheumatism. I bought three bottles but before I got through with the third bottle I was cured, and have not felt the least effect of rheumatism since. It is undoubtedly the best remedy for rheumatism I ever tried. I can cheerfully recommend it to the public.

Yours truly, D. M. Cunningham.

Messrs. Lipman Bros., Savannah, Ga.

Gentlemen: Last June I had a scrofula sore to break out on my ankle. It grew rapidly and soon extended from my foot to my knee. I got one bottle of your P. P. P. and was agreeably surprised at the result. The entire sore healed at once. I think I have taken nearly every medicine recommended for scrofula and catarrh, and your P. P. P. is the best I ever tried. It cannot be recommended too highly for blood poison, etc. Yours very truly,

W. P. Hunter.

On last Saturday a special dated at Houston, Tex., appeared in both the Dallas News and Ft. Worth Gazette, to the effect that Sheriff, of Collin county, had passed through that city with a young man by the name of Foreman, who had been arrested at Beaumont, charged with false swearing. The special asserted that Foreman was accompanied by his young wife who was chained to her husband and strongly denounced the same as brutal treatment. Mr. Moulden informs us that the report is false, that he never thought of such action. That Mr. and Mrs. Foreman were allowed to remain together without being chained or molested. The wife was not under arrest but was allowed to return with her husband, even her expenses being paid by Sheriff Moulden. There is talk of a damage suit.

Attacking Collins.

Hon. R. M. Collins, of Denton, was a democrat up to a few weeks ago. For many years he has been prominent in the councils of this state. His reputation, won by brains and standing, has been and is statewide. At his home in Denton where he is best known his character is unimpeached and unimpeachable. He came over to the populists some weeks ago and since then has become the victim of personal assaults from demorepss. In a local paper last week, Mr. J. M Gage, of Satillo, Hopkins county, who says he served with Mr. Collins during the war makes a bitter attack upon the latter's character. Mr. Gage sprung the subject in a conversation with us sometime ago, and we discovered in two minutes that his hatred of Mr. Collins was mainly caused by personal reasons. And then again, Mr. Gage did not think it worth while to denounce Mr. Collins until he became a populist. That is significant. Mr. Gage is a good man and citizen, but in all kindliness we must say that even he cannot besmirch the personal and political escutcheon of such a man as Robert M. Collins. He is above reproach.

Touch of Nature.

Beaumont, Jefferson Co., Tex., Jan. 24.—The sheriff of Collin county has not come nor sent an officer for Tom Foreman, who was arrested on a warrant from that county charging false swearing. Foreman feels confident that he will be cleared of the charge, of which he still maintains both ignorance and innocence. It has come to be a settled opinion here that the charge against him is for swearing falsely as to his wife's age when he secured his license to marry her, and those who are of this opinion are in a high state of indignation at the prosecution of the case and the attempt to separate the young couple. Mrs. Foreman is almost distracted and spends most of her time at the jail with her husband. It is possible that a writ of habeas corpus may be sued out to-morrow, as several have interested themselves in the case and announced their intention to do all they can to help the young folks out.

Skin Cancer Cured.

Testimony from the Mayor of Sequin, Tex.

SEQUIN, TEX., January 14, 1893.
MESSRS. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.: Gentlemen—I have used P. P. P. for a disease of the skin, commonly known as skin cancer, of thirty years' standing, and found great relief. It purifies the blood and removes irritation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of sores. I have taken three bottles and feel confident that another bottle will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and general troubles. Yours truly,

When a Georgia editor tells a snake story it is generally a good one. A Georgia exchange is responsible for the following: "Some years ago Judge Simmonds was presented with a pet snake. One day it swallowed an eight day clock, which could be heard to tick and strike until it run down. Shortly afterwards the the snake laid 100 eggs. On opening them he found each to contain an open face watch in good running order."
